MARIGOLD CATERING NAMED BEST OFF-SITE CATERER IN NORTHEAST OHIO FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

CLEVELAND, Ohio March 10th, 2009— Marigold Catering, a Cleveland-based event planning and catering company, has broken the mold of the typical catering firm. They take a creative approach to every event, from unique venue offerings, to exceptional event planning services and menus that feature many twists on traditional catering fare.

These are just a few major reasons why Cleveland Business Connects Magazine (CBC) recently selected Marigold as the best off-site caterer in 2009. The company also won the publication's top award for Best Off-Site Caterer in 2008. Additionally, Marigold was nominated in the category for Best On-Site Caterer (won by Sammy's) and celebrated a second win as the exclusive caterer for Park Lane Villa, voted the region's Best New Venue.

"We're honored to be recognized as one of the region's top catering firms," said Joan Rosenthal, owner of Marigold Catering. "For thirteen years, we've worked hard to provide our clients with world-class fare, backed by detail-driven event planning. This award nomination is a true reflection of how our staff consistently delivers on those promises."

After hundreds of entries, CBC Magazine made its final choices for the catering categories. Along with Marigold Catering, two other highly regarded firms, A Taste of Excellence and Sammy's, were also selected in the best Off-Site Caterer category.

"Being recognized among the industry's top catering firms is a testament to the quality and creativity of our offerings," said Greg MacLaren, executive chef and partner at Marigold Catering. "Our passion and enthusiasm for our craft really shine through, creating a memorable experience for guests."
